Dear Vickie and Jiminy,

Two or three weeks ago I had a package mailed to you from the seafood market and they just called me and said the package had just been returned to them. They had sent it UPS to the New York FPO address. They are going to re-send it thru the post office but know you won't get it by Christmas - they just had to call you (at 7:30 a.m. this morning) but you recent home. Another thing in case are wondering about the different box number. It has been box 2, but the tape and recent pictures had Box 9 on the return address. If the package arrives after you have left for Wash. D.C. I assume your office will hold it for you won't they?

Mary is excited about seeing you and of course we are happy the and Jimine are going to move back here.

When I have my Christmas break on the 15th I will have all the girls back on the tape to send to you.

Dad is going out to the super market now and I want him to mail this. More later.

Love,
Mom
